ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Publishers and Proprietors,
To Whom Address All Communications

At Blatterman & Power's store
You'll find they keep on hand
Stoves of every shape and kind—
The best in all the land.
And they desire the BULLETIN
To say to every one,
Respecting prices of these things
They knock 'em down to none.

Capt. M. M. Clay, well known in turf circles died at Paris, this week.

A bed-room suit of furniture worth $300, at Henry Ort's, is worth going to see.

The postoffice closed at ten o'clock this morning and will not open again until to-morrow.

The lady who advertised recently in this paper for a feather bed, will please call at this office.

A GRAY eagle killed a few days ago by Mr. H. P. Fitch, of Lewis county, measured six feet from the end of one wing to the other.

A Festival will be given in the school house at Aberdeen, on Friday and Saturday evenings of this week for the benefit of the school. All are invited.

At Flemingsburg, on Saturday, a little son of Mr. E. J. Dusey, fell upon an axe, splitting open his knee in such a manner that it may cripple him for life.

Attention is directed to a hog item in our Washington correspondence. It is, however, nothing to excite surprise as occurrences vastly worse occur here every day.

Dr. L. Hemen, of Lexington, bought of Mr. Kilpatrick, of New York, the chestnut stallion Sir Walter, by Aberdeen; dam Lady Winfield, by Edward Everett, for $10,000.

Prof. W. W. Remson and Mayor L. N. Holiday left to-day on a hunting expedition. They will make their headquarters at the farm of Mr. John McDonald and Mr. Amos Wilson in this county.

The satin lined overcoats to be placed on "Heehing Bros. & Co's" counters next Monday, are offered as the bargains of the season. If you want a fashionably made overcoat of the best fabric at a low price, this is a good opportunity.

At the Second Presbyterian Church in Lexington, last Sunday, a collection of $200 was asked for foreign missions, but when the proceeds were counted up it was found that $500 had been given. Lexington is trying to imitate Maysville.

The will of Mr. Joseph Throp, who died suddenly at Poplar Plains, recently has been admitted to probate. His estate which amounts to about $15,000 is devised to his wife, and at her death it is to go to the Female Orphan School, at Midway, Ky.

A LITTLE colored boy yesterday, on Second street, set down a basket containing a lot of groceries, and while his back was turned two hogs made a meal of the contents. The work was neatly and expeditiously done. Small boys with baskets or hogs must go. Which shall it be?

The Maysville BULLETIN has an article "How to cook the Thanksgiving turkey." Almost anybody knows how to cook the turkey, but the vital question with some of them is, how to get it.—Mt. Sterling Sentinel.

A good way to get it, and the one in vogue here, is to pay 12 cents a pound for it. The old fashioned way of finding it in the house after some dark night has been abandoned in this neighborhood.

The "O. B." letters printed in the Republican and read with so much interest by the people of Maysville, have been published in book form and are now for sale at the book stores. The printing, which is the work of the Republican, is very neatly done. The price of the books 50 cents. Every citizen should have a copy.

A country merchant who had just returned from Cincinnati said, yesterday, to one of our leading grocers:

"I was offered canned tomatoes at $1.15 a dozen."

"I can supply you," replied the Maysville dealer, "with all you want at $1.05 a dozen."

Comment is unnecessary.

The advertisement of Mr. Henry Ort, successor to White & Ort, appears elsewhere. Mr. Ort has a very large stock of furniture on hand that embraces all kinds, from the cheapest to the most artistic. Every article in the stock will be sold at a less price than the purchaser would have to pay for the same article at Cincinnati, and Mr. Ort will convince you of it if you will call and see him.

Strangers who sat down to dinner to-day at the European Hotel must have been impressed with the idea that Maysville is a good place to spend Thanksgiving, and they would, no doubt be still further surprised to learn that the dinner to-day was not a whit better than mine host Heller ordinarily prepares for his guests. The tables of the European are well provided and no hotel in the State, of the same pretensions, can boast of better.

A Word to the Ladies.

The city council in submitting the question as to whether hog-breeding shall continue in the city, to the legal voters, many of whom are hog owners, and naturally interested in maintaining the nuisance, did not consider how much interested the ladies of Maysville were in getting rid of the offensive and disreputable practice of permitting hogs to run at large and commit all manner of trespasses, wherever they please. No part of the community suffers more from the presence of the hog in the town than the ladies. They encounter them upon the sidewalks, in the streets and in all public places. The hogs invade their premises, destroy their gardens, and not infrequently enter their residences. It will not do to say they must keep their front doors and gates always closed. That cannot be legally required of them, but our public officers should make hog owners know that the law makes them liable for all trespasses by their hogs. It is only because of the prevalent idea that a tax on a hog is a license for the hog to depredate without responsibility, and the refusal of persons to prosecute for such offenses that the hog owners are so entirely indifferent as to the damage done by their hogs.

If the ladies cannot express their abhorrence of this evil at the polls they can at least use their influence with their husbands, brothers and friends to rid the city of it, and this we earnestly ask every lady in the city to do.

Wood Carving.

It has occurred to the BULLETIN that wood carving might be pleasantly and profitably pursued in this city, by those who have the inclination and leisure to acquire the art. With a view of encouraging the organization of a class, at our request, Mr. Ben. Pittman, of the Academy of Design at Cincinnati, has kindly recommended a young lady, who is a competent teacher and who is ready to begin work the first of next January provided a good class can be formed by that time. There are a number of persons in Maysville of artistic tastes and genius who will not doubt be glad to enter such a class, or who will aid in the organization of it. All such persons and others who wish to learn the art, will please leave their names at Frank Phister's book store.

PERSONALS.

Miss Carrie Hubbard is visiting friends at Elizaville.

Mr. S. Simons has gone to Cincinnati to buy holiday goods.

Mr. John King, who has been very sick, is much better.

Professor B. F. Williams is eating his Thanksgiving dinner at Mr. Oliver to-day.

Mr. Chas. Chas. B. Anderson is in the city. He is looking well and appears to enjoy his life.

Miss Mamie Pearce, of this city, will be married at an early day to Mr. John Dodd, of Louisville.

Mr. J. T. Henry, late of this city, is now traveling for the firm of J. C. Hoppe & Co. of Cincinnati.

Miss Hattie Wood, of Washington, and Miss Hattie McAttee, of Lewisburg, are the guests of the family of Mr. A. H. Thomson.

Miss Reica Grinnam, one of Cynthia's most fascinating belles, is expected at Aberdeen soon, to attend the wedding of two very popular young people of this neighborhood.

BAD, BAD, BAD BLOOD.

Some blood is bad because it is poor and weak. Some is bad because it contains impurities. Some men have such bad blood that the wonder is it does not poison the mosquitoes who come to bite them. The rich red color of good blood is owing to the iron which is present. Blood which has not enough iron in it is always unsatisfactory. The persons in whose veins it circulates cannot be said to enjoy good health.

The efforts of expert chemists to produce a preparation of iron which can be assimilated with the blood have resulted in that perfect preparation which is an important part of Brown's Iron Bitters. It is the only one which freely enters into the blood. It is the only one which accomplishes the desired good.

Weak, poor, thin blood may be made rich and strong, and impure blood may be purified by the use of that Great Iron Medicine, Brown's Iron Bitters.
